

Wasatch Rodeo Club Members Compete at Utah State Finals

Wasatch Rodeo Club is 32 members strong with 17 members qualifying for State Finals. Members qualifying for state are Raquel Sweat, Kacy Knight, Terri Jaques, Denni McKenzie, Robbi Ryan, Chet Young, Jeff Thompson, Jamie Sweat, Tony Callister, Cody Bethers, Ben Dansie, Jason Binggelli, Justin Davis, Greg McPhie, Nick Provost, Charlie Dansie, and Shawn Stephens.

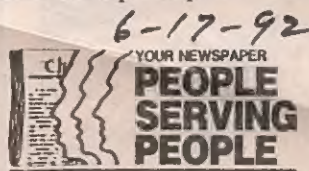

Out of the seventeen members qualifying Charlie Dansie, Shawn Stephens, and Nick Provost were in the top ten Saturday. Dansie and Stephens in Steer Wrestling, and Provost in Cow Cutting.

During the year, the members are competing against each other for the year-end awards. Awards are given in each event, plus all-around cowboy and cowgirl, and Rookie of The Year. For each rodeo they enter, they are given so many points, and for each time that they place, they are given another point. They are also given points if they qualify for state and how far they go in state.

Members have to keep the grade point of 2.0 through the school year. If they do not, they will not be allowed to participate in a rodeo.

This is a nationwide rule and is observed by every club in the state. With 31 clubs, and over 450 members state wide, Utah has the most members nationwide, and will be well represented at the Nationals in Shawnee, OK.

Park Campfire Program

On Friday, June 19, Utah Wildlife Rehabilitation will be at the park's visitor center at 7 p.m. Utah Wildlife Rehabilitation is a non-profit organization that takes in and cares for injured or abandoned wildlife. There will be live animals for people to see that have been rehabilitated in this program.

On Saturday, June 20, Phil Douglass, from Utah Wildlife Resources, will conduct a program on bird sounds at 7:30 p.m. in the amphitheater located inside the campground. Phil will identify a variety of bird sounds that you may hear when you are outside. He will also demonstrate the art of making some bird sounds.

These programs should be very entertaining for all members of the family. They are free but may be canceled if the weather is bad. For more information, call Wasatch Mountain State Park at 654-1791 or 654-3961.

Rodeo Utah Pageants are now available. The deadline for application is June 26. To obtain applications, contact the Miss Rodeo Utah Business Office, 1875 Monroe Boulevard, Ogden, UT 84403 or call (801) 629-8284.

Heber Light & Power is a community asset. It creates local jobs and contributes to the local economy. It affords customer-owners a voice in utility decisions and the right to exercise local control. Utility revenues stay here at home to benefit our community.

Our not-for-profit utility enjoys access to clean, federal hydroelectric power, which supplied 43 percent of our electric needs in the six-month period ending March 31, 1992. It is Heber Light & Power's lowest-cost energy resource.

Combined, the cost of all power supply resources accounts for approximately 37 percent of Heber Light & Power's cost of operating and distributing power to our customers.

Heber Light & Power is owned by you. It's our community a better place to live.
